- (a) on an order of the Board of Directors; or
- (b) on a written requisition signed by the greater of three Members or one-tenth of the Members (to a maximum of twenty-five) stating the proposed resolutions for which the meeting is to be called.

4.6.4 The chair of any Members Meeting can:

- (a) take the business of the meeting in any order that they may decide; and

An adjourned meeting is a continuation of the original meeting. The date of all resolutions passed is the date they were passed (as opposed to the date of the original meeting). There is no need to give notice of an adjournment or to give notice of the business to be transacted; and
- (c) with or without the agreement of the Members present, adjourn the meeting where in the chair's opinion the conduct of those present has become too unruly to permit an orderly meeting to continue.

4.6.5 At all Members Meetings the Chair of the Board of Directors shall preside. If there is no such Chair or if the Chair is not present or is unwilling to act, the Deputy Chair of the Board of Directors (if any) shall preside, failing which the

- 4.7.6 Any question as to the acceptability of any vote shall be determined by the chair of the meeting after consulting the Secretary, whose decision shall be final.
- 4.7.7 A vote shall be taken at the meeting at such time and in such manner as the chair of the meeting directs. The result of such a vote shall be treated as the resolution of the Society in general meeting.

5.1.6 The Representative Body shall adopt a Code of Conduct. Every candidate for election and every person nominated for appointment shall sign a statement confirming their agreement to follow the Code of Conduct if elected or appointed.

5.2 Elected Representatives

5.2.1 The Tenant Representatives shall be elected by Tenant Members using election procedures determined by the Representative Body, which shall strive to ensure equality of representation and access.

5.2.2 The Employee Representatives shall be elected by Employee Members using election procedures determined by the Representative Body, which shall strive to ensure equality of representation and access.

5.3 Appointed Representatives

5.3.1 The process for the appointment of Appointed Representatives shall be agreed between the Secretary on behalf of the Representative Body and the external organisation to ensure that individuals are appropriately and validly appointed.

5.4 Terms of office

5.4.1 Tenant Representatives and Employee Representatives are elected for a period of three years, commencing immediately after the Annual Members Meeting at which their election is announced, and concluding at the end of the Annual Members Meeting three years later (which is treated for these purposes as three years). After that:

5.4.3 Appointed Representatives are appointed and Co-opted Representatives are co-opted for a one year term of office, at the end of which their appointment or co-option may be renewed, without any limit on the maximum period that may be served.

- (a) they are a Director; or they are the spouse or partner of a Director; or

- (c) they have been removed from office by the Representative Body under these rules; or
- (d) they have been dismissed from employment by the Society or any part of the RBH Group for any reason other than a voluntary redundancy (which for the purposes of these rules means leaving that employment on good terms and without a formal dispute process) which occurred more than one year previously; or

- (e) by doing so they would in the opinion of the Secretary bring the Society into disrepute.

5.6 Termination of office and removal

- 5.6.1 A person holding office as a Representative shall immediately cease to do so if they become ineligible to be a Representative under these rules or if:
- (a) they resign by notice in writing to the Secretary;

- (a) they have committed a serious breach of the Code of Conduct; or
 - (b) they have acted in a manner detrimental to the interests of the Society; and the Representative Body considers that it is not in the best interests of the Society for them to continue as a Representative.

- 5.7.2 Any Representative or the Board of Directors may complain in writing to the Secretary that a Representative has committed a serious breach of the Code of Conduct, or acted in a way detrimental to the interests of the Society. If the complaint relates to a Representative appointed by Rochdale Borough Council the Secretary and the Chair of the Representative Body may forward the complaint to the Council and make such representations as appropriate to the Council. The Council shall take into account the complaint and representations in considering whether to remove the Representative by terminating their appointment pursuant to rule 5.6.1(c).
- 5.7.3 If a complaint is made, the Representative Body must itself consider the complaint having taken such steps as it considers appropriate to ensure that each Representative's point of view is heard and may either:
- (a) dismiss the complaint and take no further action; or

- (b) arrange for a resolution to remove the Representative complained of to be considered at the next meeting of the Representative Body
- 5.7.4 If a resolution to remove a Representative is to be considered at a meeting of the Representative Body details of the complaint must be sent to the Representative complained of not less than one calendar month before the meeting with an invitation to answer the complaint.
- 5.7.5 At the meeting the Representative Body will consider evidence in support of the complaint and such evidence as the Representative complained of may wish to place before it.
- 5.7.6 If the Representative complained of fails to attend the meeting without due cause the meeting may proceed in their absence.
- 5.7.7 Unless the Representative is appointed by Rochdale Borough Council, a Representative may be removed from office if a majority or two-thirds of the other Representatives present at the meeting resolve that the Representative complained of has committed a serious breach of the Code of Conduct, or acted in a way detrimental to the interests of the Society, and that it is in the best interests of the Society that they should be removed from office.
- 5.7.8 The following shall automatically be treated as a serious breach of the Code of Conduct:
 - (a) failure to attend on average 80% of meetings over any 12 month period without valid reason approved by the Representative Body; or
 - (b) refusal or persistent failure to undergo any training prescribed by the Representative Body.
- 5.7.9 A Representative removed from office will cease to be a Representative upon the declaration by the Chair of the meeting that the resolution to remove them is carried.
- 5.7.10 Unless the Representative is appointed by Rochdale Borough Council, a Representative removed from office may appeal against that decision to the Non-executive Directors, and if successful shall be re-instated.
- 5.7.11 Save for a Representative appointed by Rochdale Borough Council, no person who has been removed from office as a Representative and not re-instated on appeal may be elected or appointed as a Representative unless a resolution to permit this has been approved by the votes of two-thirds of the Representatives present and voting at a meeting.

5.8 Vacancies

- 5.8.1 Where a vacancy arises amongst the elected Representatives for any reason other than expiry of term of office, the following provisions will apply:
- 5.8.2 The seat will be offered to the next highest polling candidate for that seat at the most recent election (if it was contested), who is willing to take office, and who will, as a result, be entitled to fill the seat for the remainder of the term of office.

- 5.8.3 If there is no such willing candidate, an election will be held before the next Annual Members Meeting to fill the seat for the remainder of the term of office.

5.9 Training and development

- 5.9.1 Training and development will be made available to Tenant Members and Employee Members who are interested in standing for election. The Representative Body will specify any core training which any candidates for election or elected or Appointed Representatives are obliged to undertake. Training in the chairing of meetings is to be made available to Representatives.

5.10 Expenses

- 5.10.1 Serving as a Representative is a voluntary unpaid role. However Representatives are entitled to be reimbursed out of pocket expenses incurred in serving as a Representative, on proof of expenditure in accordance with the Society's policies and practice.
- 5.10.2 Out of pocket expenses can include the costs of providing care to another person, subject to prior approval by the Society.
- 5.10.3 Where Representative Body meetings are held during the working day, Employee Representatives are entitled to attend such meetings without deduction of remuneration. Tenant Representatives and Tenant Management Organisation Representatives who can prove loss of income caused by attending such Representative Body meetings shall be entitled to claim a modest attendance allowance to be determined by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

5.11 Meetings, including calling, chairing, quorum and other procedures

- 5.11.1 Representative Body meetings will be held as frequently as needed, subject to a minimum of four meetings each year (from one Annual Members Meeting to the next).
- 5.11.2 Meetings of the Representative Body are called by the Secretary, or by the Chair of the Representative Body, or by eight Representatives (including at least two Tenant Representatives and at least two Employee Representatives) who give written notice to the Secretary specifying the business to be carried out. The Secretary shall send a written notice to all Representatives as soon as possible after receipt of such a request. The Secretary shall call a meeting on at least fourteen but not more than twenty-eight days' notice to discuss the specified business. If the Secretary fails to call such a meeting then the Chair or the eight Representatives, shall call such a meeting.
