Hello from Amanda

Dear customers,

A warm welcome to the spring edition of your RBH Neighbourhood News.

Many of you will have celebrated Easter or Eid recently. We hope that, if you were marking these occasions, you enjoyed peaceful and joyful time with your loved ones.

We also celebrated International Women's Day, which encouraged us all to think about how we can support one another to achieve our goals. When women thrive, whole communities thrive too, and our borough has a proud history of strong, inspiring women who have helped shape the place we live in today.

That spirit continues here at RBH. We're lucky to have so many dedicated and talented women working across our organisation, helping us deliver services for you every day.

On that note, we also wanted to share some changes within our leadership team. Our Executive Director of Customer and Community, Nadhia Khan, retired on 31 March after seven years with RBH. We'd like to thank Nadhia for all she has contributed and wish her the very best for the future.

Taking on this role is Sandra Coleing, who many of you will already know from her position as Executive Director of Corporate Services. Sandra is looking forward to focusing even more closely on customer services and community work, and we're excited for what this means for the year ahead.

There are so many opportunities for you to get involved with us here at RBH and ensure that your voices guide the work we do.

Our neighbourhood walkabouts, taking place every month across the borough, are a great opportunity to meet our Engagement Team and Neighbourhood Housing Officers, share your views, and tell us about any issues you're experiencing where you live. We'd love to see more of you joining us – find out more on page 16.

A big thank you as well to everyone who took part in our recent customer conversations, also known as tenancy audits. Your time and feedback are hugely appreciated and help us better understand what you, our customers, want and need from us. More information is available on page 10.

As you'll see from the information throughout this newsletter, we are absolutely committed to making sure we're the very best landlord we can be.

We'll keep working hard to make a real difference in your homes and your neighbourhoods, and we're grateful for everything you share with us along the way.

With many thanks

Amanda Newton
RBH Chief Executive

Help us to make this newsletter better

Huge thanks to all of you who have told us what you think of Neighbourhood News. We're listening to your feedback and are including more of the things you've told us you want, such as good news stories from across the borough, but we still want to hear from you.

To let us know what you'd like to see in your quarterly newsletter, you can:

You can:

- email us on customer@rbh.org.uk or call 0800 027 7769
- send us your feedback at www.rbh.org.uk/newsletter
- become a Communications Champion by emailing communications@rbh.org.uk

We're proud to support International Women's Day

Supporting WHAG through our volunteering programme

Members of our Neighbourhood Environment Team lent their support to the Women's Housing Action Group (WHAG) in the run-up to International Women's Day. WHAG provides specialist services for vulnerable women and young families facing homelessness and domestic abuse.

Our colleagues cleared out all the donation storage rooms, organised the playroom and weeded and removed overgrown shrubbery from a one-acre site at one of the charity's sites in the area. A team from our contractors 'No Graffiti' then jet washed the area making it accessible again.

We also created care packages for WHAG to distribute to the women and families that they support. For many of these women and families, even the most basic items can make a huge difference. RBH colleagues donated sanitary items, nappies, soap, shampoo, toothpaste, toothbrushes, and more besides, which were delivered to WHAG to pass on to those in need of support.

Our inspirational women of 2026

We asked our customers and colleagues to nominate the women who inspire them as part of our celebration of International Women's Day. Nominees were invited to an afternoon tea on Wednesday 11 March to let them know they are appreciated, valued, and celebrated.

A message from the Chair of the Board

I'm really pleased to have this opportunity to write for our first customer newsletter of 2026. So much has happened already in the first few months of the year.

2026 started with some great news - we secured £55 million of new bank funding. We can't deliver the homes and services that you rightly expect to receive if RBH is not financially sustainable. This is a huge priority for us as your Board. Last year we installed 792 new kitchens, 331 new bathrooms and 531 new boilers, and we completed 53,500 repairs. This money will enable us to continue to make this investment in your homes and start to develop plans to build new affordable homes.

This funding also shows that we have made huge progress in restoring confidence in how RBH is run. Our new funding partner, Principality Building Society, is investing in the English social housing sector for the first time - and they have chosen to make this investment here in Rochdale and with RBH.

Of course, being financially sustainable will not matter if we do not use our resources well. I am so pleased to see that the feedback you have given us through our Tenant Satisfaction Measures continues to improve. I want to encourage you to continue to provide that feedback in whatever way is most convenient to you.

We use this information to make sure that we are getting our services right and learning from where we could do better. I can assure you that your views are a vital part of our decision-making at every level - including in our discussions in Board meetings. We can't improve without you.

We do our best work when we do it together, and we have some great opportunities to get more involved if you are interested in doing so. We're a mutual society which involves us making sure that our customers and our employees have a voice in how we are managed. Later this year we'll be looking for new members of our elected Representative Body and you can find out more about getting involved as a Member of RBH on pages 8 and 9 of this newsletter. You can also use our feedback form on page 14 to let us know that you'd like to get involved.

We've got a lot to look forward to over the rest of 2026 and I am looking forward to working with you as we continue to improve the services we provide.

Kindest regards,

Kevin Brady
Chair of the RBH Board

Community News

Great turnout at our Customer Voice Forums

A huge thank you to everyone who came along to see us at our recent Customer Voice Forums. We held five events all across the Borough as well as an online session.

It was great to hear what you thought about our values and behaviours, and how we can put your feedback into practice in your homes and in our communities. We hope you've already started to notice improvements in how our colleagues work with you.

Our next sessions will be in the early summer and we'd love to see you there - keep an eye out for more details.

£1m renovation of Tonge Court is complete

We've completed our £1m+ refurbishment of Tonge Court Independent Living Scheme – and our customers love it.

The large-scale improvement scheme has seen the interior and exterior of the building transformed.

Customers living at the Middleton scheme told us what they wanted and we've delivered. TADW Architects took their feedback on board with the designs, and our delivery partner Emanuel Whittaker carried out all the works.

At the new look scheme we've:

- Created a new, larger communal kitchen
- Improved the lounge, dining area, patio and car park
- Created a new scooter store on site
- Provided rooms for quiet wellbeing and hairdressing
- Installed a new energy efficient boiler
- Improved the lighting and access
- Installed new fire doors throughout
- Added new furniture and flooring and decorated throughout

// It looks modern and we are delighted. You gave us everything we asked you for. //

Community News

Keeping our communities safe

We're proud to work closely with Greater Manchester Police and other partners to keep our neighbourhoods safe. We have a zero-tolerance approach to crime and Anti-Social Behaviour in our communities.

We want to build on the work we've done together in Freehold as part of Operation Affect. We know that visible responsive policing makes a big difference and as a result, we've provided funding support for Greater Manchester Police to purchase e-bikes for community officers to use to increase visibility and respond quickly.

Recently we had the opportunity to meet with police colleagues to see the bikes in action, and we're looking forward to seeing them out and about in our communities very soon.

A purr-fect way to volunteer

We're proud to have worked with the Council and Your Trust to support our friends at Rochdale RSPCA into their home at Hollingworth Lake - and they need the community's help to continue their great work.

Our Chief Executive, Amanda Newton, has recently spent some time with David Canavan, the Chair of the Rochdale branch of the charity, and seen first hand the desperate state that some of the animals that are abandoned or worse are in when they are taken into the care of the RSPCA. Ten of our colleagues also recently spent time helping out at the Animal Centre.

We can always rely on them to help where we have issues with animals needed help in our homes and we do our best to pay that kindness back.

You can help too, by visiting their shops in Littleborough, Heywood, Middleton, Whitworth and Rochdale, or by visiting the gift shop at the animal centre at Hollingworth Lake. You can also become a friend of the animal centre - find out more by emailing rec.rspcarochdale@btconnect.com or calling 01706 861897.

Winter Warmth roadshows provide over £40,000 of support

Thank you to the 69 customers who attended our Winter Warmth roadshows. Attendees received support from both our Money Matters Team and our partners. As a result of these roadshows, our team have:

- Secured an additional £43,263 for customers through energy vouchers, benefits support, and other financial help
- Helped 11 customers access more affordable tariffs for their water charges
- Donated energy-saving slow cookers supplied by Back o' th' Moss Community Centre
- Provided winter warmth bundles including a thermal snood, gloves, hat, blankets, and non-electric cooker bags
- Made 39 referrals to partners such as Citizens Advice and Stepping Stones for wider support
- Signposted customers to other RBH teams, including repairs and damp and mould services

One notable success was how we were able to help a customer who had health issues. She'd originally called into discuss a complaint but over a brew, it became clear that the team could help with her health issues. A home visit was booked in, and an application was completed for Attendance Allowance. After regularly checking in with the customer, and once AA was awarded, a pension credit application was then submitted.

Get involved

become a Member

RBH is a mutual housing society, owned and shaped by the people who live in our homes and who work for us. Becoming a Member means you have a real say in what we do, and how we do it. If you're ready to be part of something bigger, join today and help us to shape the RBH you want to see.

- Visit www.rbh.org.uk/join
- email membership@rbh.org.uk
- call us on Freephone 0800 027 7769

Your voice doesn't just get heard, it drives change.

Who can join?

- Anyone named on a tenancy or aged 18+ and living in an RBH home
- All RBH employees, including apprentices and trainees

Why join?

- Be part of the discussions about the services we provide
- Share your views, take part in scrutiny exercises (detailed looks at specific topics to help us get better), influence priorities, and help steer improvements that matter
- Vote in Representative Body elections or even stand for a seat yourself
- Get updates on what we're working on, and how your views are driving change
- Whether you prefer a quick text survey or deeper involvement, you choose how much to get involved

What Your Membership Helps Us Achieve

Every new Member strengthens RBH's mutual model. Together, Members help us:

- Improve services based on real customer and colleague insight
- Understand what matters most in our homes and workplaces and turn that into action
- Shape priorities through feedback, service reviews, and consultation
- Build a stronger, more connected community
- Ensure decisions reflect real lived experience
- Be part of shaping a positive future for housing in the Borough of Rochdale

Hear from your Representatives

Your Representatives are customers and colleagues elected by Members.

They champion your views, hold themselves and the rest of the organisation to account, and help shape our future direction. Don't take our word for it – hear directly from your Representatives in their own words!

This summer we'll be holding our next set of elections for our Representative Body and we'd love to hear from you.

If you'd like to find out more about our Representatives, visit www.rbh.org.uk/representatives, email rep.body@rbh.org.uk or call us on 0800 027 7769 and ask for the Governance Team.

"As Chair of the Representative Body, I'm proud of RBH's unique mutual model, where customers and colleagues are at the heart of everything we do. Becoming a Member gives you a real voice in shaping our services, your home, and our shared future."

Andrew Johnson,
customer Representative and Chair of the Representative Body

"Serving on the Representative Body presents a unique opportunity to represent the voices of RBH customers, while working alongside other members who share a strong commitment to improving our communities."

Jose Castanheira,
customer Representative

"Change is an inevitable part of life but still it can be quite unsettling. I have found being a part of the Rep Body has made me better informed around why change is happening and also to be able to contribute to making changes."

Davina Unsworth,
colleague Representative

"Being part of the Representative Body has been genuinely rewarding. It's given me a real voice in shaping our community, and I've loved working alongside people who care deeply about making a positive difference. The experience has been both grounding and energising, and I've learned far more than I expected."

Rob Dyson,
customer Representative

"Being a part of our membership empowers each one of us, ensuring tenants and colleagues alike are at the forefront of everything we do. Join us and do your bit in leading RBH forward to a more improved, inclusive, and mutual organisation."

Jamie Kelly,
colleague Representative

"Being on the Representative Body is a unique opportunity with fabulous training opportunities. It gives you a strong ability to empathise with tenants and the wider communities we live in and serve."

Jason Reilly,
customer Representative

Getting to know you better

To make sure that we're making the right decisions for you, we need to better understand the needs, wants, and aspirations of all our customers.

That's why last year we undertook our customer census. This was the big survey that we sent to all our customers in 2025. Many people filled it in online, and for others we held conversations over the phone or in person. We want to say thank you to all of the 2,094 customers who took the time to answer our questions.

We want to continue to keep our information up-to-date, and we're doing this through our ongoing customer conversations. These involve our teams visiting you at your home to talk about anything we can do to help support you. You might also hear these calls referred to as "tenancy audits".

We're speaking to as many customers as we can - all we ask is that you let us in and have some form of ID available to make sure we are talking to the person whose name is on the tenancy agreement. All our colleagues carry identification so you can check it's us. If you are unsure, please give us a call on 0800 027 7769 or email CustomerExperience@rbh.org.uk.

How we're using these conversations to help our customers

While carrying out one of these conversations one of Neighbourhood Housing Officers came across a customer that needed a complete kitchen refurbishment, as well as repairs to his bathroom and other parts of the property.

Following a family bereavement the customer had found things difficult to manage and didn't think they could get any help or support, so struggled.

Our colleague immediately contacted our Assets team and a temporary kitchen was fitted in days with a full kitchen on order.

A full remodel of bathroom will be carried out and he has also been referred to partner agencies for extra support.

Thanks to that one conversation, which started on the doorstep, we have transformed a customer's life and he couldn't thank our colleague enough on a follow up visit.

So please, if we do knock on your door over the coming weeks, please answer it – we are here to help.

Making the most of our digital donation scheme

One of our Neighbourhood Housing Officers, Rebecca, called at the home of Miss Cardoso Balde to complete one of the audits. After talking to her she mentioned that her eldest daughter Matilda didn't have a phone anymore and that she was trying to save for one.

Rebecca remembered that through our Digital Donation scheme we can look at donating unused equipment to customers. We were more than happy to give Matilda a phone and also a laptop, which Rebecca dropped off to the grateful family.

A delighted Matilda was happy with her phone and said she would share the laptop with her younger sisters.

Using your feedback to help us improve

In the census, we asked you questions about you and anyone else living in your home, so that we could better understand your needs.

We also asked you about what you think about the services we provide and the things that you'd like to see us do in your neighbourhood.

We want to share some of the things we've done as a result of your feedback.

Did you know that each neighbourhood has a dedicated Neighbourhood Housing Officer working in the area?

We're using some of the information you shared with us to help us to make sure that we're doing the right thing for your area. Visit www.rbh.org.uk/neighbourhoods to find out more – or turn to page 16 for details of upcoming neighbourhood walkabouts.

You told us that it was important that we were able to resolve queries at first time of asking and first point of contact more effectively.

You told us that you wanted us to make it easier to get in touch with us, and that we needed to make sure that we continue to learn from any complaints and feedback. We are working hard to improve our contact centre and complaints services; putting new processes in place so we can respond more rapidly and effectively.

You told us it was usually straightforward to raise a repair with us, but that we could do better on how we communicate with you about our repairs and planned maintenance.

Our Representative Body is currently looking at this as one of their ongoing scrutiny projects. We're committed to continuing to invest in our homes to ensure they are safe and warm. Last year we invested £27 million in our existing homes. This included 792 new kitchens, 531 new boilers, and 331 new bathrooms.

You told us that tackling anti-social behaviour was a priority for you. We have a zero-tolerance approach to crime and anti-social behaviour, and we're working hard with our partners and communities, as well as with Greater Manchester Police, to make things better. Our award-winning partnership on Freehold, Operation Affect, has made a real difference for our customers. You also told us how important it was for us to improve the look and feel of your local areas - whether that is through reducing litter or improving facilities. We're using our colleague volunteering scheme to help make our neighbourhood spaces greener and brighter.

We also asked you what you thought about our membership and mutuality. We know we have more to do to share with you how our mutual society makes a real difference. Through their action plan, you'll be hearing more from our Representative Body members over the coming months about the difference they are making for our colleagues and customers. Find out more on pages 8 and 9.

Making sure our homes are for those who need them

Tenancy fraud cheats other people of the chance of being offered a home they genuinely need. Recently, our checks helped us uncover a case of tenancy fraud that allowed us to return a home to someone who truly needed it.

It began with a routine Right to Buy application. As part of our process, we ask for additional information and carry out home visits to make sure everything is in order. In this case, those checks raised concerns and we discovered that the tenant wasn't living at the property and was subletting the home to someone else.

We carried out a full investigation and were able to prove that the tenant was actually living elsewhere. As a result, the Right to Buy application was withdrawn, and the home has since been offered to someone on the waiting list.

Signs to watch out for include properties that appear empty for long periods, neighbours who have moved out but the home is still in use, or lots of different people coming and going.

If you suspect tenancy fraud, don't stay silent. Speak up in confidence by calling us on Freephone 0800 027 7769 or by emailing speakup@rbh.org.uk.

Don't get taken in on the doorstep – ask us for ID

We've been made aware of scam callers operating across the area.

These callers have called on our customers asking for a cash deposit for gardening or other work, claiming to work on behalf of RBH or on behalf of the Council. Sadly some customers have handed over money – up to £100 in some cases – and been left empty handed.

Our team members will never ask you for cash on the doorstep under any circumstances, and they always carry ID. If you're not sure about a caller, you can call us on Freephone 0800 027 7769 to confirm their identity.

Please take care when answering your door. Our team members will always be understanding if you wish to take extra steps to verify their identity. If you become aware of a scam, please let us know, and also report it to the police.

If it sounds too good to be true, it probably is

We are aware of housing disrepair claims companies targeting our customers, promising compensation for repairs issues. You may have heard them referred to as "claims farmers".

These companies may contact you by phone, text, social media, or even by knocking on your door. They often describe themselves as offering "no win, no fee" claims. Be careful - if something sounds too good to be true, it probably is. Customers can be charged thousands of pounds if they leave the agreement, and even if successful, the compensation payment can be quite small compared to the costs charged.

Often the paperwork may not be what it seems, and charges can be hidden in long and complicated contracts.

In some cases, solicitors acting for RBH customers whose claims have been unsuccessful have had the option to pursue their clients for legal costs running into thousands of pounds. We've also seen cases where customers have been charged thousands of pounds after they have left agreements. Instead:

- Report repairs to us as soon as possible.
- Give us the opportunity to inspect and fix the issue.
- If you're unhappy with how a repair has been handled, contact us directly – we will work with you to put things right and then put you in contact with our internal complaints department. We have a two stage complaints process, and customers are also able to escalate to the Housing Ombudsman. Call us on Freephone 0800 027 7769, email customer.complaints@rbh.org.uk, or visit www.rbh.org.uk/myrbh.

Join us on our walkabouts

Your Neighbourhood Housing Officers are out and about in your community, and they're on hand to support you with your tenancy as well as to offer guidance on housing management matters.

This could include the allocation of homes (in line with the allocations policies set by the Council and RBH), mutual exchanges, assignments, and successions. You can also speak to them if you want to report tenancy fraud - for example if you feel someone is not living in their home, or a home is being occupied by someone who should not be living there.

You can also speak to them if you are worried about anti-social behaviour or want to report a safeguarding issue.

Details of your neighbourhood housing officers are available on our website - visit www.rbh.org.uk/neighbourhoods to find out more. Get in touch with them by:

- coming along to our drop-ins or neighbourhood walkabouts
- sending a message on the MyRBH portal at www.rbh.org.uk/myrbh
- emailing us on customer@rbh.org.uk
- calling us on Freephone 0800 027 7769
