

Pantry Service Privacy Notice

The purpose RBH is processing your information is: to register you as a member of the pantry service, contact you about pantry service updates and monitor attendance and usage of the service to ensure it is delivered fairly.

Our legal basis for doing this is: UK GDPR Article 6(1)(e), as the processing is necessary for us to carry out a task in the public interest. We use your information because providing the food pantry service supports the wellbeing and welfare of the local community, which is part of our public interest role.

As part of this process the following information may be obtained by RBH: Personal details and contact details.

Your personal information will then be kept on our records: for 6 months after you withdraw from or stop using the pantry service.

You have a number of rights which we have to respect. One of these is a right to see all your personal information that RBH processes. For more information on your rights and for further information on how RBH protects your personal information please see the RBH Privacy Statement.

If you are unhappy with how RBH processes personal information you may complain to the UK's regulator, the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).
